At The Little Gym of Roxbury, our environment is fun, but our purpose is serious. That's why we embrace a proprietary philosophy called Three-Dimensional Learning, in which physical activity is a conduit for nurturing your whole child.

The Three-Dimensional Learning approach to skill development means that every class we offer fosters growth in three holistic dimensions—Brain Boost!, Get Moving! and Citizen Kid!.

We have gymnastics, dance, karate, and music Classes for kids ages 4 months to 12 years old.
